FREE EVENT
How to Create Your Ideal Life By Having a Thriving Private Practice

I’m really looking forward to connecting with you on my free teleclass that will help you discover how to build your own thriving private practice. It’s going to be a powerful call that I hope will open you up to new possibilities in your practice and life.

Here’s what to do next…

1. Print this Action Guide because I want you to fill in the blanks and take notes DURING the live call. This will help you anchor your learning and capture your a-ha’s as they are happening.

2. Call in 5 minutes early to ensure your space on the call. Here are the call-in details:

   Wednesday, May 4, 2016
   11:00 am PST/2:00 pm EST/8:00 pm (20:00) CEST
   Dial-In Number: (425) 440-5100
   Passcode: 675106#

Here’s what we’ll be covering during the call:

- How a successful private practice gives you freedom to live your ideal life
- How to design your practice to suit you
- How to eliminate all the guesswork in growing your practice so you know what actions to take when
- The easiest, fastest way to have clients come to you regularly

You’ll Also Gain an Exclusive Opportunity to Join Me for my next Thriving Private Practice System.

Enjoy and I look forward to “seeing” you there!

Melanie Roche
“Once I had a ______________, my practice began to soar.”

What would your practice look like if you had the same factor put into place?

______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________

Your A-Ha’s and Insights

______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
Thriving Private Practice Secret #1: Think ________________

The Three Stages of Relationship Building

1. _______________

2. _______________

3. _______________

Think Back…
Think back to a time where you used a service like a doctor or a healer.

How did you find them?
(Remember, you were a stranger to them at one point.)

____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________

Did you have an initial conversation to connect? If so, how did that reassure you?

____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
Why did you choose that service provider over any/all other options?

______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________

What Could YOUR Practice Look Like?

Your A-Ha's and Insights

______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
Thriving Private Practice Secret #2:
The _________________, ____
______________ __________Conversation

The first thing you do in the enrollment conversation is invite them to _____ about what’s _____

Then _____ how you work.

You _______ to them what you heard and you ______ and _______ what you heard.

Then ________ this to their presenting complaint.
About Melanie Roche

Melanie Roche is an energy healer who is a certified graduate and former faculty member of the Barbara Brennan School of Healing. This is the only School of Healing where one can earn a B.S. (Bachelor of Science) degree in energy healing.

She completed the four years of training in energy healing and four years of advanced training to become a certified Brennan Integration Practitioner—integrating hands-on healing with psychotherapeutic methods.

She is one of only a handful of teachers who taught in two locations of the Barbara Brennan School - in Miami and Tokyo.

She has a thriving private practice and works in person and by phone and via Skype with people around the world.

In addition to her healing training, Melanie also holds a Master’s degree in Experimental Theatre from New York University and a B.A. in Comparative Religion from Columbia University.

A published writer as well as a playwright, choreographer and performer, Melanie also leads workshops in reclaiming creativity through embodied writing, movement and voicework.

To learn more about how to work with Melanie go to: http://www.thrivingprivatepractice.com